Overall Route

After leaving Sendai Airport, take a train from Sendai Airport Railway Station to Sendai Station (25 minutes). Then, transfer to the Shinkansen for Morioka (the express train takes about 40 minutes; the local train takes about 80 minutes).

After exiting the station, turn right and walk towards the arrow in the picture (within 5 minutes). Take the escalator to the second floor.

Take the escalator to the second floor.

On the second floor, turn left and continue straight to buy train tickets.

If you have an iPhone, consider adding and using Suica or Pasma cards.

Scan your ticket to enter the station and wait for your train.
Alight at the final station—Sendai.

Take the escalator out of the station and turn left at the exit (towards the central exit).

Locate the ticket office and queue to buy Shinkansen tickets to Morioka.

Go straight up the escalator.

After exiting the escalator, turn left to enter the station.
Refer to the electronic screen for information to verify your ticket and find the boarding gate.

Go straight to the end, turn right onto the escalator for your train number, and wait at the platform according to the carriage number on your ticket.

Upon arrival, take the escalator down and turn left.
Exit at the south gate.
